Stephen Ross

Chairman of the Board/ Managing General Partner

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: SEVENTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SEVENTH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies – an international real estate firm – began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his longheld dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. Additionally, Mr. Ross reached a unique agreement with Miami-Dade County in June of 2014 to modernize the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins. The performance-based arrangement provides for the stadium to be comprehensively modernized without County funds, and – upon completion of the project – makes the stadium eligible for economic incentives when it delivers world-class events, such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches, as well as other international soccer events. Mr. Ross has also improved the gameday experience for stadium patrons by upgrading all facets of stadium operations and by introducing best-in-class amenities and activities that have changed the way fans experience live sports in South Florida. On the football side, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team, including a multi-million dollar renovation of the club's training facility over the past two seasons.

In 2012, Mr. Ross and Matt Higgins founded RSE Ventures, a multi-national sports and entertainment venture firm with a focus on new technologies. Today, RSE Ventures owns and operates a diverse group of companies in four interrelated verticals: Sports, Entertainment, Digital, and New Ventures. In addition to building businesses, RSE also actively invests in early stage companies through its partnership with marketing expert and serial entrepreneur, Gary Vaynerchuk. VaynerRSE focuses on teams building tomorrow's companies through unique consumer insight and relentless drive.

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered the most prominent privately owned real estate firm in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing and sales. Related is one of the largest owners of affordable housing, has real estate assets valued at $15 billion and has developed $22 billion in real estate assets including the landmark Time Warner Center and Hudson Yards development in New York City, and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc., and serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center. In addition, he is a trustee of New York-Presbyterian Hospital and the Guggenheim Foundation. He also is a director on the board of the Culture Shed and the Jackie Robinson Foundation and Chair Emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association. Mr. Ross is also a director on the board of the World Resources Institute (WRI) and recently established the WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities, an innovative new initiative to integrate urban planning, sustainable transport, energy and climate change, water resources, and governance.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Most recently, he was named a New York Power Player by the New York Times, the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. He also received The National Building Museum Honor Award, REBNY's Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award and the Jack D. Weiler Award from United Jewish Appeal. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and he was recognized by NYC & Company with its Leadership in Tourism Award.

In May of 2013, Mr. Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including some based in South Florida. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

In February of 2014, Mr. Ross spearheaded a white paper with the NYU Sports and Society program, headed by University Professor Arthur R. Miller and NYU Law Dean and founder of the Sports and Society Program Trevor Morrison, examining the phenomenon of intolerant behavior in sports, and proposing a comprehensive range of initiatives focused on youth athletics to combat them. Mr. Ross is working with Morrison, Miller a team of NYU Law faculty, alumni, and students, as well as faculty affiliated with NYU to work on a range of linked projects examining the issue.

GRIMES AND WAKE NAMED TO PRO BOWL

Miami Dolphins cornerback Brent Grimes and defensive end Cameron Wake were selected to the 2015 NFL Pro Bowl squad, the NFL announced on Dec. 23. The annual contest will be played on Sunday, Jan. 25, 2015 at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ari., site of Super Bowl XLIX. The game will be televised live on ESPN at 8 p.m. ET.

Grimes, in his eighth season and second with the Dolphins, will make his second-consecutive and third overall trip to the Pro Bowl, having been selected to the 2011 NFC Pro Bowl squad as a member of the Atlanta Falcons. In 2014, Grimes started all 16 games at cornerback and recorded 57 tackles (47 solo) and led the Dolphins with 13 passes defensed and five interceptions returned for 80 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown. His five interceptions were tied for the third most in the NFL. Additionally, this season, he recorded interceptions in three-straight games in Weeks 8-10 (one at Jacksonville on Oct. 26, two vs. San Diego on Nov. 2 and one at Detroit on Nov. 9), matching his longest consecutive streak with an interception in his career dating back to 2009 with the Falcons. Grimes is the third Dolphins cornerback selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Sam Madison (1999-2002) and Patrick Surtain (2002-04). He also became the third player, and the first in 20 years, to earn a Pro Bowl invitation in his first two seasons with the Dolphins after coming over from another team. Grimes, who signed as an unrestricted free agent in March 2013 after playing for the Falcons, joined tight end Keith Jackson (1993-94) and wide receiver Irving Fryar (1994-95).

Wake, in his sixth season, will be making his fourth trip to the Pro Bowl and third as a defensive end (he made the Pro Bowl in 2011 after a 14-sack season as a linebacker). In 2014, Wake started all 16 games and notched 36 tackles (31 solo), 11.5 sacks, 18 quarterback hits, eight tackles for loss, tied his career high with three forced fumbles (2010) and one fumble recovery. With his 11.5 sacks this season, Wake became the fourth Dolphins player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 to record double digit sacks in at least three seasons with the team – Jason Taylor (six seasons), Trace Armstrong (three seasons) and Jeff Cross (three seasons). In Week 1 vs. New England, he recorded two sacks and two forced fumbles, the first time in his career that he has tallied two forced fumbles in a game and the first Dolphins player to record at least two sacks and two forced fumbles in the same game since 2009. Also, for the second time in his career (2012), he tallied sacks five consecutive games in Weeks 6-10 (1.5 vs. Green Bay on Oct. 12, 1.0 at Chicago on Oct. 19, 1.0 at Jacksonville on Oct. 26, 1.0 vs. San Diego and 2.0 vs. Detroit).

Wake is one of only two Dolphins players to earn Pro Bowl recognition at different positions (linebacker in 2011 and defensive end from 2013-15), joining teammate Randy Starks, who was selected as a defensive end in 2011 and as a defensive tackle in 2013.

The Pro Bowl will be "unconferenced" for the second consecutive year. Last season, the AFC vs. NFC match-up that had existed since 1971 was eliminated. The Pro Bowl players are determined by the consensus votes of fans, players and coaches. Each group's vote counts one-third toward determining the All-Star players. Players will be assigned to teams during the 2015 Pro Bowl Draft on NFL Network on Wednesday, Jan. 21 at 8 p.m. ET.

Further, his 92.8 passer rating was the fifth-highest single-season passer rating in franchise history.

RYAN TANNEHILL NOTES

TANNEHILL MAKES HISTORY WITH HIS LEGS

QB Ryan Tannehill's third quarter fourth-and-1 30-yard run in Week 7 at Chicago not only helped break the contest open in an eventual 27-14 victory, it propelled him up the Dolphins record books. The 30-yard run was the second-longest gain by a Dolphins player in a fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2 situation since 1991, trailing only a 39-yard run by Larry Izzo off of a fake punt against Green Bay in 2000. Additionally, it was the longest run by a Dolphins quarterback on a fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2, topping the previous high of three yards shared by Jay Fiedler in 2003 and Joey Harrington in 2006. The 30-yard gain also was the longest run on fourth-and-1 or fourth-and-2 by an NFL quarterback since 2006 when Tennessee's Vince Young went 36 yards on fourth-and-2 in the second quarter against the Buffalo Bills.

LANDRY NAMED AFC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF MONTH FOR OCTOBER

WR Jarvis Landry was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for October.

In the month of October, Landry returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return is second-highest in the NFL in October and is the highest October average in franchise history. On the season, Landry has returned 16 kicks for 500 yards, including a long of 74 yards, for an average of 31.3 yards per kickoff return. The 31.3 yards per kick return currently leads the NFL and his long return of 74 yards is sixth-longest in the NFL.

The honor marks the first Player of the Month for Landry. He is the first Miami special teams player to be honored with the monthly award since kicker Dan Carpenter was recognized for his accomplishments during the month of October in 2010. Landry also becomes the first conference rookie to win the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month since Oakland Raiders kick returner Jacoby Ford received the award following the month of November 2010. He is the second Dolphins rookie to win the honor, joining Carpenter, who received the Special Teams Player of the Month award for his performance during November in 2008.

Delmas

DELMAS NAMED AFC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF WEEK

Miami Dolphins S Louis Delmas was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Week 8 of the 2014 NFL season.

Delmas had two tackles, a fumble recovery, a pass defensed and an interception, which he returned 81 yards for Miami's opening score, in the Dolphins 27-13 victory against the Jacksonville Jaguars. The 81-yard interception, the eighth-longest in franchise history, of Jaguars QB Blake Bortles was his first interception of the season and seventh of his career. The touchdown was the second of Delmas' six-year career, the first occurred on December 20, 2009 as a member of the Detroit Lions when he picked off a Kurt Warner pass and returned it 101 yards for a score. Delmas also became the first Miami player to record an interception and a fumble recovery in the same game since Reshad Jones recorded an interception and two fumble recoveries vs. Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2012. Additionally, he was the first player to recover an opponent's fumble and return an interception for a touchdown in the same game since Roy Williams on December 29, 2002.

The honor marks the first AFC Defensive Player of the Week for Delmas, who signed as a free agent with the Dolphins on Mar. 10, 2014. Delmas was also honored in 2009 as the NFC Rookie of the Month for September.

Since the award was established in 1984, this is the eighth time and second consecutive season a Dolphins safety has earned the AFC's weekly defensive honor. Previous Dolphins winners at safety include Michael Thomas (2013, Week 15), Lance Schulters (2005, Week 3), Brock Marion (Delmas 2001, Week 13), Brian Walker (2000, Week 11), Shawn Wooden (1997, Week 1), Louis Oliver (1992, Week 5 and 1989, Week 5) and Glenn Blackwood (1985, Week 15). Delmas joins Thomas (2013), Schulters (2005) and Oliver (1989) as Dolphins safeties who won the honor in their first season with the team.

The Miami Dolphins will be holding the 5th Annual Dolphins Cycling Challenge on February 7-8, 2015.

Launched in 2010, the Dolphins Cycling Challenge (DCC) has raised $7 million dollars for cancer research in just four short years, with the goal of $5 million in 2015! With 100% of participant-raised funds staying in the local community, the DCC is committed to helping the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center achieve NCI designation – making it one of the best of the best in the country!

"The Miami Dolphins are committed to our community and the people who live here. South Florida deserves a world-class cancer center and we are honored to support innovative cancer research at Sylvester," said Tom Garfinkel, President and CEO.

With less than two months before event weekend, DCC already has more than 2,000 people signed up to participate in one of six bike routes or the inaugural 5k run/walk at the stadium.

"We are excited to have every level and every department within the Dolphins involved this year," said Garfinkel. "With the event outside of the regular season, both the football and business side can TACKLE CANCER."

New this year, the DCC will be hosting a kick-off party on Friday, February 6 from 4-8pm at the stadium. The kick-off will be a festival type atmosphere, with participants picking up their credentials, filling up on power food and beverages and being entertained by local DJs and musical acts. Miami Dolphins players, alumni, cheerleaders and coaches will be in attendance to rally the crowd.

The DCC is dedicated to improving people's lives through the financial support of innovative cancer research at the Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. This is done through a fun, safe and exceptional bike ride with routes in Palm Beach, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami and 5k run/walk at Sun Life Stadium, with 100% of participant-raised funds going directly to Sylvester. Founded by the Miami Dolphins in 2010, the DCC has already raised $7 million. DCC V will be held February 7-8, 2015.

COMMUNITY EVENTS OF THE SEASON - MIAMI DOLPHINS, AARP FOUNDATION PACK AND DELIVER ONE MILLION MEALS

The Miami Dolphins, through their Special Teams Driven by Chevy Volunteer program, partnered with AARP Foundation on Saturday, Sept. 20 to pack and deliver ONE MILLION MEALS for individuals 50+ in South Florida and support Feeding South Florida with the donation. Over 4,000 volunteers donated their time, including a significant number of youth sports teams, churches and community groups, to pack 150,000 pounds of food for those less fortunate.

"It was so exciting to be out here today. The energy inside and outside the tent was incredible. Seven percent of older Floridians are at risk of hunger each and every day," AARP Foundation President Lisa Marsh Ryerson said. These nutritious, high quality meals help people get food that will be incredibly meaningful in their lives."

"It was an amazing thing to see thousands of volunteers help pack meals today," Miami Dolphins President & CEO Tom Garfinkel said. "It really hammers home the idea of stronger together for all of South Florida to join in this great event."

A spirited environment of altruism remained the theme of the day, with mascot T.D., Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders, the Miami Dolphins Women's Organization, over 25 Miami Dolphins Alumni and thousands of enthusiastic volunteers packed over 950,000 meals. In total, one million meals will be distributed in the South Florida community.

SUN LIFE STADIUM MODERNIZATION PLAN

SUN LIFE STADIUM MODERNIZATION PLAN APPROVED BY MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSION

The modernization of Sun Life Stadium is ready to move forward.

The Miami-Dade County Commission on Tuesday, June 17 approved Mayor Carlos Gimenez's plan for bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting marquee events in exchange for Dolphins Owner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the $350 million renovation of the stadium without county assistance.

"I want to thank the Board of County Commissioners and Mayor Gimenez for approving this unique and creative plan to bring Super Bowls and other marquee events to Miami-Dade County," Ross said in a statement. "We have one of the world's most aspirational cities and, as such, deserve a stadium that will provide significant economic impact to Miami-Dade County. This will not only secure the future of the Dolphins, but will ensure that Miami has one of the world's best venues to host events of this magnitude going forward."

The resolution, which was co-sponsored by District Commissioner Barbara Jordan, was approved around 1 p.m. on Tuesday after approximately 1 hour and 45 minutes of discussion.

"I'm just excited that we can break ground and get started on creating a world-class facility for a world-class community," said Dolphins President & CEO Tom Garfinkel. "Now the hard work really begins. We've got to get the renovation plans finalized, start construction and get it done."

Garfinkel spoke before the county commission and the Dolphins delegation in downtown Miami, which included Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Larry Little, along with former Dolphins greats Jason Taylor, Dick Anderson and Nat Moore.

Taylor said it was important for former players to show their support.

"We are the Miami Dolphins," Taylor said. "All the former players, guys that live in this community still and make this home, we are the Miami Dolphins. It's not just an owner or the players or the staff, it's all of us included and it's important for us to come out and support and do what we can to help. There's plenty of politicians and lobbyists and all that that do the dirty work. We lend a hand where we can."

As Marino pointed out, he played in the first-ever game at Sun Life Stadium back in the 1987 preseason, and he's thrilled it's about to get a facelift.

"I think it's great for the community," Marino said after the vote. "I'm a Dophins fan. It's part of my life, playing there so many years. I'm excited that it's going to be around and get a new look."

With the agreement with Miami-Dade County in place, Garfinkel said the Dolphins intend to bid next spring for the next available Super Bowl, SB LIII to crown a champion in the 2018 season.

"That was part of the intent of trying to get it done," Garfinkel said. "We want to bring in as many marquee events as we can as soon as we can."

Garfinkel said the modernization of the stadium would be done in two stages, with the goal to have all of the work done before the start of the 2016 season.

The new deal was reached under what was termed a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement.

The agreement, which is designed to help bring marquee events such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches as well as other international soccer events, is for a period of 20 years.

MIAMI DOLPHINS START STADIUM MODERNIZATION

A HOST OF IMPROVEMENTS IS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETE BY THE START OF THE 2016 FOOTBALL SEASON

On June 28, 2014, the Miami Dolphins commenced work on the modernization of Sun Life Stadium. The multi-year construction project officially began following a successful vote before the Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners on June 17, 2014. The project, which will encompass a host of improvements, including all new seats, a shade canopy, new video boards, and concourse and concession improvements, is expected to be complete by the start of the 2016 football season. Upon completion, Sun Life Stadium will be a best-in-class facility capable of attracting world-class events to South Florida for the next 25 years.

"Today is an exciting day for the Miami Dolphins and South Florida as we mark the beginning of our comprehensive stadium modernization project," said Tom Garfinkel, President & Chief Executive Officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. "Once complete, the stadium will serve as a global destination that will bring a diverse set of world-class events and significant economic benefits to Miami-Dade County."

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR THIS SEASON

CEFALO, GRIESE AND ROSE RETURNED TO THE BOOTH IN 2014

WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) concluded their fifth year as the flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that resulted in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 – The Sports Animal) being the Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphin preseason, regular season and playoff games are broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show rounds out "Dolphins Game Day Live" coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, Dolphins.com, FanVision, the In-Stadium Television Network, the Dolphins Television Network and the Dolphins mobile app.

In 2014, Joe Rose, Bob Griese and, Jimmy Cefalo return to the Dolphins' radio team.

In July 2014, the Dolphins announced a multi-year extension of their partnership with Univision Radio in Miami to be the Spanish language flagship station of the Miami Dolphins. Univision Radio's WQBA-AM (1140 AM) and the Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network broadcast every preseason, regular season and post-season Dolphins game. This season marks the 33rd consecutive year that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

Jimmy Cefalo concluded his 10th season as part of the Dolphins' radio team, and is certainly well known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of "Sports Monday." Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular "Sports Jam Live," which aired on Sunday nights.

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins, he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Joe Rose again joins Cefalo on the team's radio broadcasts, and like Cefalo, he built a broadcast career after his playing days ended. He is in his ninth season as a Dolphins radio analyst and served as the sports director for WTVJ-TV (Channel 6), joining that station in 1992. In past years he has hosted "The Coaches Show" on that outlet and was featured on the station's successful "Sunday Sports Final" as well. Rose is well known locally for his popular 6-10 a.m. weekday show on WQAM.

Rose was a Dolphins tight end from 1980-85, and in that time caught 112 passes for 1,493 yards and 13 touchdowns. He had his best year in 1983, when he had 29 catches for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He is best known for catching Dan Marino's first regular season touchdown pass, a six-yard reception on September 19, 1983 in Los Angeles versus the Raiders. Rose originally was a seventh-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1980 after playing at the University of California.

Joining Rose and Cefalo in the booth for the regular season is former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese, who is in his fourth year as a member of Miami's radio team after a long tenure on ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football.

On the Spanish broadcasts, Raul Striker, Jr. returned for his ninth season. In addition to those duties, he is well known for his extensive sports reporting on Spanish radio and television outlets in South Florida. Roly Martin joined him in the booth to assist in calling games.

WEEK 1 VS. NEW ENGLAND

GAME 1: MIAMI 33, NEW ENGLAND 20

SUNDAY, SEPT. 7 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins didn't make it easy on themselves in their season opener against the New England Patriots Patriots at Sun Life Stadium, but they still found a way to come up with a big victory Sunday after a tremendous second-half performance.

The Dolphins won their second consecutive season opener, scoring 23 unanswered points in the second half to beat the Patriots 33-20. Miami beat Cleveland in its 2013 opener on its way to a 3-0 start on the season.

It was the second consecutive Dolphins victory against New England, following their 24-20 thriller at Sun Life Stadium last December.

On Sunday, the Dolphins won thanks to a 13-point third quarter that included a 14-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace and a pair of short field goals by Caleb Sturgis.

The Dolphins got an insurance touchdown with 3:29 left in the fourth quarter when Knowshon Moreno put the finishing touches on a memorable Dolphins debut with a 4-yard run to cap an 85-yard drive.

Moreno finished with 134 yards, thanks to some strong blocking from the new-look Dolphins offensive line and his ability to see the hole and break tackles.

The defense also came up big for Miami, particularly with a dominating second-half performance.

The Dolphins shut down the high-powered New England offense despite playing without its three starting linebackers — Philip Wheeler, who was inactive, and Dannell Ellerbe and Koa Misi, who both left the game with injuries in the first quarter.

After allowing the Patriots to rack up 248 yards in the first half, the Dolphins defense stiffened in the second half. The Dolphins sacked Tom Brady on four of New England's first four possessions of the second half, with Cameron Wake, rookie Chris McCain, Olivier Vernon and Wake again taking down the Patriots quarterback.

Wake forced a fumble on his first sack, setting up the Wallace touchdown that tied the game at 20.

The Dolphins defense held New England to a mere two first downs in the second half before the Patriots' last possession.

The Dolphins trailed by 10 at halftime despite a start they couldn't have scripted any better.

The defense held New England to a three-and-out, punter Ryan Allen then dropped the snap on fourth down and McCain came in to block the punt to give the Dolphins the ball at the Patriots 15-yard line.

Four plays later, Tannehill hit Lamar Miller in the flat for a 4-yard touchdown and quick 7-0 lead.

But the Dolphins turned the ball over on their next three possessions, fumbles by Wallace and Miller sandwiched around an interception by Tannehill.

The interception, with the game tied 7-7, really hurt because it came on an underthrow when Wallace was wide open behind the New England secondary.

The turnovers helped the Patriots score 17 unanswered points before the Dolphins cut the deficit to 17-10 with a 38-yard field goal by Sturgis on the last play before the two-minute warning. Sturgis added a fourth field goal, from 27 yards out, with 2:44 left in the fourth quarter.

New England answered Sturgis' first field goal with a field goal drive before halftime, with Stephen Gostkowski connecting from 46 yards out with 6 seconds left.

That set the stage for the second half when the Dolphins took over the game and completely manhandled their AFC East opponents.

WEEK 2 VS. BUFFALO

GAME 2: BUFFALO 29, MIAMI 10

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14 • 1 P.M. ET • RALPH WILSON STADIUM • ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

GAME SUMMARY

Like they did in their season opener against the New England Patriots, the Dolphins faced a halftime deficit at Ralph Wilson Stadium. But they weren't able to pull off a second consecutive comeback, falling 29-10 to the Buffalo Bills in their road opener.

The Dolphins are now 1-1 on the season, with the Kansas City Chiefs heading to Sun Life Stadium.

Big plays and special teams were the biggest factors in this game.

Brandon Fields had a punt blocked; the Dolphins allowed a 102-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by C.J. Spiller; and rookie Jarvis Landry muffed a punt in the fourth quarter.

The punt block and the muffed punt set up two of the five field goals by former Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter.

Buffalo's offense also produced four plays of 28 yards or more, led by a 47-yard run by Spiller that set up a Bills touchdown.

The Dolphins offense suffered a big blow in the first quarter when running back Knowshon Moreno left the game with an elbow injury. Moreno, who rushed for 134 yards against New England, was injured at the end of a 4-yard run. It was his only rushing attempt of the day.

Against a Buffalo defense featuring one of the best defensive lines in the NFL, the Dolphins were able to produce only three offensive plays of at least 15 yards and none longer than 18 yards.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill ended up setting career highs in attempts (31) and completions (49), but he wasn't satisfied with his performance.

The Dolphins' only touchdown did come on a spectacular play as Mike Wallace reached behind him to make a one-handed snag of a Tannehill pass in the corner of the end zone.

The touchdown cut the Dolphins' deficit to 16-10 in the third quarter, but Buffalo answered with the drive that featured Spiller's long run and the Dolphins weren't able to score again.

The Dolphins threatened early in the fourth quarter when they faced a fourth-and-4 from the Buffalo 48-yard line trailing 23-10. Tannehill kept the ball on an option, but was dropped for a 4-yard loss by safety Da'Norris Searcy.

The outcome pretty much wasn't in doubt after that.

After a disappointing first half that ended with Buffalo leading 9-0, the Dolphins offense got things moving after receiving the second-half kickoff.

The Dolphins picked up five first downs on that opening drive, only one less than they managed in the entire first half.

The drive stalled at the Buffalo 16-yard line and the Dolphins had to settle for a 34-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis to cut the Bills lead to 9-3.

But Buffalo immediately regained the momentum with Spiller's kickof return for touchdown.

On the next-to-last play of the game, cornerback Leodis McKelvin intercepted Tannehill to put the finishing touches on a disappointing day for the Dolphins.

WEEK 3 VS. KANSAS CITY

GAME 3: KANSAS CITY 34, MIAMI 15

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21 • 4:25 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins' nasty habit of falling behind in the first half cost them again this past Sunday at Sun Life Stadium.

Similar to what happened the previous Sunday at Buffalo, the Dolphins mounted a valiant comeback effort in the second half, but ultimately came up short and dropped a 34-15 decision against the Kansas City Chiefs.

The loss left the Dolphins with a 1-2 record heading into their matchup against the Oakland Raiders in London, England, next weekend.

The loss put a damper on some impressive individual performances, most notably by running back Lamar Miller, linebacker Jelani Jenkins and rookie wide receiver Jarvis Landry.

Miller, getting extended action in the absence of Knowshon Moreno, finished with a career-high 108 yards. Jenkins had 1.5 sacks, a forced fumble and he combined with Randy Starks for a safety when they sacked Alex Smith in the end zone in the third quarter. Landry had kickoff returns of 40 and 74 yards.

The Dolphins trailed 14-3 at halftime against Kansas City, this coming after they had deficits at the half of 10 points against the New England Patriots in the season opener and nine points against Buffalo.

Kansas City got the ball to start the second half, but the Dolphins defense changed the momentum quickly when Jared Odrick sacked Smith on third down and forced a fumble that was recovered by Derrick Shelby.

After a 10-yard run by Miller gave Miami a first-and-goal at the 4, the Dolphins cashed in on the turnover when Ryan Tannehill hit Brian Hartline with a 1-yard touchdown pass on third down.

The Chiefs answered with a 66-yard touchdown drive that was capped by an 11-yard pass from Smith to running back Joe McKnight.

Landry's ensuing 74-yard kickoff return to the Chiefs 33-yard line set up Caleb Sturgis' 51-yard field goal, which cut the Dolphins deficit to 21-13.

Because of penalties, Kansas City began its next two possessions at its 7 and then its 1, and on first down of the second drive Jenkins and Starks combined for the safety that made the score 21-15.

Trailing by six, the Dolphins had a promising drive going early in the fourth quarter after a 9-yard run by Miller made it second-and-1 at the Kansas City 47, but Tannehill threw incomplete deep on second down and then was sacked on third down.

The field position then flipped when Frankie Hammond Jr. returned Brandon Fields' punt 47 yards to set the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 44-yard line.

Nine plays later, McKnight scored his second touchdown of the game, on a 4-yard pass, to make it 27-15 with 4:35 left after a two-point conversion failed.

After Landry's long return of the opening kickoff, the Dolphins found themselves with a first down at the Chiefs 45-yard line, but the drive stalled.

The Dolphins reached Kansas City territory on the first drive of the second quarter, but Sturgis missed a 48-yard field goal attempt.

Sturgis would connect from 22 yards out on the last play of the first half, but that was after the Chiefs had followed his miss with two touchdowns, a 21-yard run by Knile Davis and a 25-yard pass from Smith to tight end Travis Kelce.

WEEK 4 VS. OAKLAND

GAME 4: MIAMI 38, OAKLAND 14

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28 • 1 P.M. ET • WEMBLEY STADIUM • LONDON, ENGLAND

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins were facing a long trip back home after their game against the Oakland Raiders at Wembley Stadium in London. But at least they could spend a lot of the time on the plane reliving everything that went right in their most dominating performance in years.

Behind a near-flawless performance from quarterback Ryan Tannehill and a defense that not only came up with its first three interceptions of the season but also its first score, the Dolphins turned the first of three London games into their showcase.

After disappointing losses against Buffalo and Kansas City, the Dolphins got a much-needed victory that gave them a 2-2 record heading into their bye.

For all intents and purposes, the game was decided by halftime and only meaningless a fourth-quarter touchdown by the Raiders kept the Dolphins from recording their largest margin of victory in 13 years.

As it was, the 38-14 final represented the Dolphins' most lopsided victory since Nov. 20, 2011 when they beat the Buffalo Bills 35-8.

Lamar Miller scored two touchdowns for the Dolphins, who also got TDs from tight end Dion Sims, Mike Wallace and cornerback Cortland Finnegan.

Before he went to the sideline to watch Matt Moore wrap up the blowout, Tannehill put together one of the best performances of his three-year NFL career, completing 23 of 31 passes for 278 yards with two touchdowns and a passer rating of 109.3.

The only blemish on Tannehill's stat line was a third-quarter interception on a pass that was tipped by Sims after it was thrown slightly behind him.

The running game continued its strong work, with the Dolphins rushing for 157 yards and a solid 4.5 yards per carry.

Tannehill completed his last 14 passes of the first half, matching the fourth-longest streak in Dolphins history, and he had a passer rating at the half at 146.5.

Tannehill's last incompletion of the first half came on the Dolphins' first drive when Brian Hartlinecouldn't stay in bounds after leaping to catch the pass.

The incompletion forced the Dolphins to settle for a Caleb Sturgis field goal that cut Oakland's lead to 7-3.

The Dolphins were flawless offensively the rest of the half and ended up with 284 total yards and 15 first downs in the first two quarters.

The Dolphins took the lead on the second play of the second quarter when Mike Wallace took a Tannehill swing pass and fought through three tackle attempts for a 13-yard touchdown.

After the defense forced a three-and-out, the Dolphins came right back with a 63-yard touchdown that was capped by Miller's 9-yard run.

The score came after Head Coach Joe Philbin decided to go for the first down on fourth-and-1. With Tannehill in the shotgun, Miller took a pitch and ran through a gaping hole on the left side of the offensive line.

The defense forced another three-and-out and did it yet again after Jarvis Landry fumbled on a punt return.

Tannehill then went 5-for-5 on a 90-yard touchdown drive, throwing in three runs for 18 yards for good measure. The touchdown came on a beautiful 18-yard pass to Sims after he rolled out to make it 24-7.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Actually, it could have been worse.

Miller fumbled into the end zone on the first possession of the second half, but got a quick chance to redeem himself after Brent Grimes intercepted rookie Derek Carr and returned the pick to the Oakland 2-yard line.

After Miller scored on a 1-yard run, the next Oakland possession ended when a shotgun snap zipped by Oakland quarterback Matt McGloin — in for the injured Carr — and Finnegan beat McGloin to the loose ball at midfield and raced into the end zone for his sixth career touchdown.

At that point, all that was left to determine was the final score.

WEEK 6 VS. GREEN BAY

GAME 5: GREEN BAY 27, MIAMI 24

SUNDAY, OCT. 12 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Miami Dolphins had to play catch-up throughout the afternoon against one of the hottest teams in the NFL, and in the end fell just short against the Green Bay Packers.

The Dolphins rallied from three different seven-point deficits — 7-0, 10-3 and 17-10 — but dropped a 27-24 decision when Aaron Rodgers hit tight end Andrew Quarless in the corner of the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown with 3 seconds left.

The touchdown came six plays after Green Bay converted a fourth-and-8 when Rodgers hit Jordy Nelson with an 18-yard pass.

The touchdown capped a 60-yard touchdown drive that began with 2:04 left in regulation. The Dolphins had a chance to clinch the victory after holding Green Bay to a field goal but couldn't kill the last 4:09 off the clock.

The Dolphins took their first lead of the game with 9:13 left in regulation when Ryan Tannehill hit Mike Wallace with a 5-yard touchdown pass.

It was the third consecutive touchdown drive for the Dolphins at the start of the second half, as Tannehill got hot after a difficult first half and the running game got going after being held to only 10 yards in the first two quarters.

The running game played a key role in the second touchdown drive of the second half, as Lamar Miller rushed for 48 yards and finished things off with a 5-yard TD run up the middle.

After trailing 10-3 at halftime, the Dolphins tied the score with an 80-yard touchdown drive highlighted by Tannehill's 40-yard run on a quarterback keeper. It was the longest offensive play of the season for the Dolphins and the second-longest run by a quarterback in franchise history.

Green Bay responded with an 80-yard drive of its down that consumed 8:04 and ended when Rodgers ran around in the pocket to avoid a sack and eventually found Randall Cobb in the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown.

The Dolphins defense turned in a solid performance in the first half after watching Rodgers march the Packers 80 yards for a touchdown on the opening drive of the game.

Cameron Wake, who had three sacks when the Dolphins won in overtime at Green Bay in 2010, was a constant presence in the Packers backfield. He had a sack and also forced an illegal grounding penalty on Rodgers. Olivier Vernon also had a sack in the first half.

Wake and Vernon also combined for a sack in the second half.

The special teams came up with two big plays in the first quarter, with Jarvis Landry returning the kickoff after Green Bay's first touchdown 54 yards to the Packers 49-yard line. The play set up Caleb Sturgis' 48-yard field goal, which cut the Packers lead to 7-3.

Jonathan Freeny blocked a Tim Masthay punt on the ensuing possession and Chris McCain recovered the loose ball at the Green Bay 16-yard line, but the Dolphins could not capitalize on that big play.

A 9-yard completion to Jarvis Landry on third down gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 4 and Knowshon Moreno, back in the lineup after missing two games with an elbow injury, gained 3 yards to make it second-and-goal at the 1.

But after Moreno was stopped for no gain and Tannehill's pass in the end zone to Brian Hartline was knocked away, Moreno was stuffed for a 3-yard loss on fourth down on a draw play up the middle.

Tannehill was intercepted twice in the second quarter, the first pick by cornerback Casey Hayward setting up a 43-yard field goal by Mason Crosby that made it 10-3.

The stage was set for an exciting, but ultimately disappointing, second half.

WEEK 7 VS. CHICAGO

GAME 6: MIAMI 27, CHICAGO 14

SUNDAY, OCT. 19 • 1 P.M. ET • SOLDIER FIELD • CHICAGO, ILL.

GAME SUMMARY

This is what is called rebounding in style.

One week after suffering a last-second loss against the Green Bay Packers, the Dolphins bounced back by dominating another NFC North team, beating the Chicago Bears 27-14 at Soldier Field.

The Dolphins controlled the action in every phase, with Ryan Tannehill leading a balanced offense that amassed 393 total yards and the defense forcing three Chicago turnovers.

Tannehill threw two touchdown passes in the first half and also rushed for 50 yards as the Dolphins evened their record to 3-3.

Many players had a hand in the defensive effort, starting with Cameron Wake, who recorded the triple play of sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery in the fourth quarter.

Randy Starks also had a fumble recovery and safety Reshad Jones had a first-half interception that he returned 50 yards to set up a touchdown.

Cornerback Cortland Finnegan also had a strong outing. He forced the fumble that Starks recovered and clinched the Dolphins victory when he knocked a Jay Cutler pass away from former Miami wide receiver Brandon Marshall in the end zone on fourth down in the final minute.

The Dolphins responded to every challenge on Sunday, the perfect example coming after Chicago opened the second half with a long touchdown drive to cut into their 14-0 lead.

The Dolphins answered the Chicago score with an 83-yard touchdown drive highlighted by Tannehill's 30-yard run on a option run on fourth-and-1 from the Bears 39-yard line.

The Dolphins increased their lead to 24-7 before Chicago scored its second touchdown, but Miami responded again by killing 5:22 off the clock with a drive that ended with Caleb Sturgis' 19-yard field goal.

The Dolphins' 14-0 lead at the half easily could have been bigger given their dominance in the first two quarters.

Miami ended the half with advantages of 209-54 in total yardage and 14-2 in first downs. Furthermore, the Bears took one snap inside the Dolphins 40-yard line in the first two quarters and the play ended with a Reshad Jones interception that he returned 50 yards to give the Dolphins a first down at the Chicago 23-yard line.

Three plays after that play, Tannehill hit Mike Wallace for a 10-yard touchdown to make it 14-0. It was the fifth touchdown in six games this season for Wallace.

The touchdown was part of a tremendous first half for Tannehill, who picked up where he left off in the second half of the Green Bay game.

Tannehill ended the half 14-of-15 for 176 yards and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 155.1, the best first-half total of his career. Tannehill's previous best came in the game in London against the Oakland Raiders.

Tannehill completed his first 14 passes until he threw an incompletion on the Dolphins' last drive of the first half.

After a three-and-out to start the game, the Dolphins offense got rolling with a well-balanced 81-yard drive that began with Tannehill's 14-yard run off the read option and ended with a 13-yard touchdown pass to tight end Charles Clay, who was left wide open in the left corner of the end zone.

Clay had the longest play in the drive, a 25-yard reception on second-and-9.

The Dolphins' two other drives in the first half ended when Caleb Sturgis was wide right on a 50-yard field goal and when Tannehill was sacked on third down to push Miami out of field goal territory.

It was one of the few things that didn't Tannehill's way on this day.

WEEK 8 VS. JACKSONVILLE

GAME 7: MIAMI 27, JACKSONVILLE 13

SUNDAY, OCT. 26 • 1 P.M. ET • EVERBANK FIELD • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The new-look Dolphins offense has gotten a lot of attention for most of the season, but it was the defense that stole the show Sunday at Jacksonville.

Thanks to touchdowns by Louis Delmas and Brent Grimes on interception returns, the Dolphins left EverBank Field with a 27-13 victory. The victory improved the Dolphins' record to 4-3 heading into a battle against the San Diego Chargers next Sunday at Sun Life Stadium.

This marked the fifth time in franchise history the Dolphins had two interception returns for touchdowns in the same game, and the first time since 1998 when they did it against the Oakland Raiders. It also happened in 1983 against the New York Jets, in 1982 also against the Jets, and in 1973 against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In addition to the two scores, the defense also came up with a fumble recovery to stop a Jacksonville scoring threat. Linebacker Jelani Jenkins forced the fumble by rookie quarterback Blake Bortles and it was recovered by Delmas, who became the first Dolphins player since safety Reshad Jones in 2012 to have both a fumble recovery and an interception in the same game.

The Dolphins' one offensive touchdown came on a 3-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill to Rishard Matthews to cap a 95-yard third-quarter drive that all but sealed the outcome.

The drive featured a 50-yard completion from Tannehill to Mike Wallace on third-and-7 from the Dolphins 8-yard line. It was the longest offensive play of the season for the Dolphins.

Three plays later, on third-and-1 from the Jacksonville 33-yard line, Lamar Miller burst through a hole in the middle of the offensive line and sprinted 30 yards to set up the Matthews touchdown.

Jacksonville's only touchdown, a 48-yard pass from Bortles to fellow rookie Allen Robinson, came with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter when the Dolphins were leading 27-6.

The Dolphins' only offensive points of the first half came on a 43-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis late in the second quarter that increased their lead to 10-3 heading into halftime.

It was not, however, a memorable first half for the offense, which went three-and-out on each of their first three possessions.

Jacksonville had success moving the ball in the first half, but was held to only three points because of its own mistakes or big plays by the Dolphins.

As a result, the Dolphins led 10-3 at halftime despite Jacksonville having an advantage of 219-56 in total yards.

After a 41-yard run by Denard Robinson on the second play of the game put Jacksonville in Miami territory, the drive stalled and Olivier Vernon then blocked a 48-yard field goal attempt by Josh Scobee to keep the game scoreless.

Jacksonville appeared to have taken the lead with a 46-yard field goal on its second drive, but a holding penalty negated the play and the Jaguars elected to punt from the Miami 38-yard line.

Delmas opened the scoring on the first play of the second quarter when Bortles, rolling to his left, threw the ball right to him. Delmas had an easy path to the end zone for the eighth-longest interception return in Dolphins history.

Grimes' touchdown came on the Jaguars' first offensive snap of the second half on a first-and-10 from the Jacksonville 7-yard line. Grimes kept his eyes on Bortles while staying step for step with Cecil Shorts and simply stepped in front of the wide receiver for the easy interception.

It was the second touchdown in two seasons with Miami for Grimes, who also had a 93-yard score in the Halloween night game against the Cincinnati Bengals in 2013.

The Dolphins offense was much more productive in the second half, adding a 68-yard field goal drive in the fourth quarter.

Tannehill then closed out the game with a 30-yard run on the first play after the two-minute warning, his third consecutive game with a run of 30 yards or more.

The story on this day, though, was the Dolphins defense and its big plays.

WEEK 9 VS. SAN DIEGO

GAME 8: MIAMI 37, SAN DIEGO 0

SUNDAY, NOV. 2 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins made it yet another painful trip to South Florida for the San Diego Chargers.

With their most impressive performance of the first half of the 2014 season, the Dolphins made it eight in a row at home against the Chargers with a 37-0 victory at Sun Life Stadium.

It was the Dolphins' first shutout victory since Dec. 10, 2006 when they beat the New England Patriots 21-0 in Miami. It also was the Dolphins' most lopsided shutout victory since 1987 when they beat the Kansas City Chiefs 42-0 in a strike replacement game.

The Dolphins arrived at the halfway mark with a 5-3 record, the first time since 2003 they have a winning record after eight games.

The Dophins haven't lost at home against San Diego since Jan. 2, 1982 when they dropped a 41-38 overtime decision in one of the greatest playoff games in NFL history.

The Dolphins have had some dominating performances against the Chargers during their streak, but few like the one they put together Sunday.

The offense moved the ball at will, compiling 282 yards in the first half and scoring on seven of Miami's first eight possessions — the only exception coming when Caleb Sturgis missed a 45-yard field goal attempt.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill was effective throwing the ball and running it. He threw three touchdown passes: to tight end Charles Clay in the first quarter, wide receiver Rishard Matthews in the second; and rookie wide receiver Jarvis Landry in the third after the Dolphins successfully challenged the on-field ruling that he had stepped out of bounds at the 1-yard line.

Tannehill finished with a career-high 125.6 passer rating after completing 24 of 34 passes for 288 yards with the three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Lamar Miller added a touchdown run in the second quarter.

The defense harassed quarterback Philip Rivers all afternoon and came up with three interceptions, one by safety Reshad Jones and two by cornerback Brent Grimes.

Grimes easily could have had a third interception on a badly overthrown pass, but Jones tipped the ball away when he reached back to try to get the pick himself.

For good measure, the defense added a fumble recovery when Olivier Vernon sacked Rivers from behind and Jared Odrick recovered the loose ball at the San Diego 14-yard line to set up Landry's touchdown, which made the score 37-0.

It would be the last play of the game for Rivers, who was pulled in favor of backup Kellen Clemens with two minutes left in the third quarter.

After Clemens was sacked by Cameron Wake on third down to end his first drive, Matt Moore came in at quarterback for the Dolphins and Tannehill got the rest of the game off after a job well done.

The turning point, if there is such a thing in a blowout like this, came on the very first drive after the Chargers moved from their 20-yard line to the Dolphins 22.

Instead of attempting a 40-yard field goal, the Chargers elected to go for the first down and Jones broke through the line to trip Oliver and help drop him for a 1-yard loss.

The Dolphins never looked back.

They marched 77 yards on their first drive as Tannehill completed all six of his pass attempts, the last a 6-yard touchdown to Clay. It was the second time in two years Clay scored against the Chargers — he had a spectacular 39-yard score in Miami's 20-16 victory last November.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Dolphins went 61 yards for a second touchdown that made it 14-0. The big play on the drive was a 22-yard run by Tannehill off the read option.

While the Chargers never took a snap beyond their 40-yard line the rest of the first half, the Dolphins added two field goals by Sturgis to take a 20-0 lead into halftime.

The Dolphins made sure to squash any Chargers hopes of a comeback early in the second half, taking the opening kickoff and marching 72 yards for a touchdown, a 21-yard pass from Tannehill to Matthews. It was the second touchdown in two games for Matthews, who also scored in the 27-13 victory against the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The Dolphins forced turnovers on San Diego's first three drives of the second half and tacked on 10 more points — on a third Sturgis field and Landry's touchdown — to make it 37-0.

WEEK 10 VS. DETROIT

GAME 9: DETROIT 20, MIAMI 16

SUNDAY, NOV. 9 • 1 P.M. ET • FORD FIELD • DETROIT, MICH.

GAME SUMMARY

After overcoming a tough start and the loss of one of their top players, the Dolphins came within seconds of extending their winning streak to four games before suffering a second painful loss against an NFC North opponent.

The Dolphins lost a 20-16 decision against the Detroit Lions at Ford Field after Theo Riddick caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Matthew Stafford with 29 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

The touchdown came on a third-and-4 and capped a 74-yard drive that earlier featured a third-and-10 conversion in Miami territory.

The loss left the Dolphins with a 5-4 record heading into their Thursday night game against the Buffalo Bills at Sun Life Stadium.

The Dolphins came into game after victories against the Chicago Bears, Jacksonville Jaguars and San Diego Chargers that followed a 27-24 loss against the Green Bay Packers.

As was the case against Green Bay, the Dolphins missed a chance to clinch the game against Detroit on offense. After Caleb Sturgis' 20-yard field goal gave Miami a 16-13 lead with 4:19 left, the defense forced a three-and-out and the Dolphins took over with 3:47 left.

But the Dolphins were unable to get a first down and had to give Detroit the ball back.

The loss overshadowed a gutsy performance by the defense, which had to face a Detroit team welcoming the return of star wide receiver Calvin Johnson.

Cornerback Brent Grimes had the assignment of trying to contain Johnson and overall turned in a strong performance, the highlight being a spectacular interception in the second quarter.

The Dolphins also put themselves in position to win the game with a huge play on special teams, as Earl Mitchell blocked a 42-yard field goal attempt and Dion Jordan ran 58 yards with the loose ball to give the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the 3-yard line.

That set up Miami's only touchdown, a 3-yard pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace. The touchdown gave the Dolphins a 13-10 lead.

In a battle of two of the top defenses in the NFL, both teams showed how they achieved those rankings.

In addition to the Grimes interception, the Dolphins recorded three sacks, two by Cameron Wake and one by Jelani Jenkins.

The Dolphins trailed 10-3 at halftime, but could consider themselves fortunate their deficit wasn't bigger.

And perhaps the biggest Tannehill play made all game came after he threw an interception in the second quarter. He hustled back on the return and prevented safety James Ihedigbo from taking it all the way back for a touchdown that would have given the Lions a 17-0 lead.

On the very next play, Grimes made a spectacular interception when he got way off the ground and made a one-handed grab at the top of his jump.

The Dolphins then put together a 14-yard play drive at the end of the first half and the Sturgis field goal cut their deficit to seven points.

After taking the opening kickoff, Detroit took an early 3-0 lead after a 15-play drive that was kept alive by a pass from punter Sam Martin to fullback Jed Collins on fourth-and-6 from the Detroit 45-yard line.

The Lions' second drive lasted one play, a 49-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to Johnson despite close coverage by Grimes.

On the other side of the ball, the Dolphins had problems at the start of the game controlling the Lions defensive line and four of their first six offensive plays resulted in losses, two on running plays and two on sacks.

Making the offense's job more difficult, tackle Branden Albert was carted off the field with an apparent leg injury on the play after Grimes' interception.

The Dolphins juggled their offensive line in his absence, moving rookie Ja'Wuan James from right to left tackle, Dallas Thomas from left guard to right tackle, and inserting Shelley Smith into the lineup at left guard.

The new-look offensive line did a good enough job against a very good Detroit pass rush that the Dolphins were in position to pull out their fourth consecutive road victory, but they just came up a play short in the end.

WEEK 11 VS. BUFFALO

GAME 10: MIAMI 22, BUFFALO 9

THURSDAY, NOV. 13 • 8:25 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins cashed in on their second-half scoring opportunities Thursday night and in the process found a way to solve the Buffalo Bills.

Ryan Tannehill threw a pair of touchdown passes in the second half as the Dolphins rallied from a 9-3 third-quarter deficit to beat the Bills 22-9 before a sellout crowd at Sun Life Stadium.

The victory snapped a three-game losing streak against Buffalo, but more importantly moved the Dolphins to 6-4 on the season and kept them in the thick of the AFC playoff picture.

Tannehill connected on TD passes of 7 yards to Brandon Gibson in the third quarter and 8 yards to rookie Jarvis Landry early in the fourth.

The Miami defense did some bending on the night, but kept the Bills out of the end zone with big plays at key times. The defense also set up Caleb Sturgis' late field goal after stopping Buffalo on downs.

Cornerback Brent Grimes saw his streak of consecutive games with an interception end at three, but he played a big role nonetheless in the victory. Matched up against wide receiver Sammy Watkins for most of the game, Grimes helped make the standout rookie a non-factor.

Second-year player Jamar Taylor made his first career start opposite Grimes with veteran Cortland Finnegan missing the game with an ankle injury and also turned in a strong performance, the highlight being a tackle for loss on a third-down running play.

Trailing 9-3 in the third quarter, the Dolphins took the lead when Gibson's touchdown capped an 80-yard drive.

Tannehill rolled to his right on a second-and-1 and eventually spotted Gibson wide open in the middle of the end zone.

The Dolphins increased the lead to 12-9 with a safety on the ensuing possession. One play after Jared Odrick dropped running back Bryce Brown for a 4-yard loss on a screen pass, quarterback Kyle Orton was called for intentional grounding when he was pressured by Olivier Vernon.

Landry fumbled on the return of the ensuing free kick and Buffalo recovered at the Dolphins 39-yard line. The Dolphins defense held and former Miami kicker Dan Carpenter, who earlier had kicked three field goals, missed wide left on a 47-yard attempt on the second play of the fourth quarter.

The Dolphins then drove 63 yards for the touchdown that increased their lead to 19-9, the biggest play being a 24-yard pass-interference penalty on cornerback Stephon Gilmore against wide receiver Mike Wallace.

The teams traded long drives throughout the first half, but managed to combine for only three field goals.

The Dolphins began the game with a promising 14-play drive that consumed 8:20 of the first quarter and reached the Buffalo 9-yard line. But on second-and-4 guard Shelley Smith was flagged for holding and the drive stalled, bringing on Sturgis for a 38-yard field goal.

The big play in the drive was a 32-yard completion to running back Damien Williams on third-and-24.

The Dolphins' second possession was highlighted by a 34-yard run by Lamar Miller and reached the Buffalo 14-yard line. But on first down Tannehill was hit from behind after he scrambled out of the pocket and he fumbled, with safety Duke Williams recovering for Buffalo.

Because of all the time-consuming drives, the Dolphins had only three possessions in the first half. The third one reached the Buffalo 41, but the Dolphins couldn't convert on third down and they punted on the next-to-last play before halftime.

Like the Dolphins, Buffalo reached the red zone twice in the first half. The Bills were forced to settle for two field goals, even after having a first-and-goal from the 6-yard line.

Buffalo increased its lead to 9-3 on its second drive of the second half, but the Dolphins took command of the game after that.

WEEK 12 VS. DENVER

GAME 11: DENVER 39, MIAMI 36

SUNDAY, NOV. 23 • 4:25 P.M. ET • SPORTS AUTHORITY FIELD AT MILE HIGH • DENVER, COLO.

GAME SUMMARY

Despite having to deal with a couple of significant injuries, the Dolphins had the lead most of the game Sunday at Sports Authority Field at Mile High. Unfortunately, they couldn't close things out and as a result left Denver with a disappointing 39-36 loss.

The Dolphins saw their record fall to 6-5 after squandering leads of 14-3, 21-10 and 28-17 against Peyton Manning and company. The Dolphins will try to rebound next Monday night against the New York Jets at MetLife Stadium.

Denver took its first lead of the game with 5:05 left in the fourth quarter and extended its margin to 39-28 after an interception set up Manning's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a 2-yarder to former Dolphins wide receiver Wes Welker.

The Dolphins refused to give up, though, and scored a late touchdown before Denver recovered an onside kick to all but clinch the victory.

The Denver interception, which was returned 37 yards by safety T.J. Ward after bouncing off the left hand of Jarvis Landry, came on a day when quarterback Ryan Tannehill overall had a strong performance, tying his career high with three touchdown passes and adding a rushing touchdown.

Landry caught two of Tannehill's TD passes, with the other going to Mike Wallace. Daniel Thomas scored the other Dolphins touchdown on a 3-yard run in the first quarter.

The Dolphins played the entire second half without starting left tackle Ja'Wuan James, who sustained a stinger, and then also lost cornerback Jamar Taylor to a shoulder injury in the second half.

Taylor was starting in the absence of veteran Cortland Finnegan, who missed his second consecutive game because of an ankle injury.

Despite the setbacks, the Dolphins led 28-17 before being outscored 22-8 in the fourth quarter.

One of the biggest plays of the game came when the Broncos went for the first down on fourth-and-2 from the Miami 41-yard line late in the third quarter and C.J. Anderson burst through a hole for a 20-yard gain.

Anderson rushed for 167 yards and the fourth-quarter touchdown for Denver, and also recovered the late onside kick.

On the third play of the fourth quarter, Manning connected with Demaryius Thomas for a 4-yard touchdown and then hit Emmanuel Sanders for a two-point conversion to make the score 28-25.

The Dolphins snapped Thomas' streak of 100-yard receiving games at seven, one shy of the NFL record, but Thomas still was a major factor as he scored three touchdowns.

The Dolphins took a 21-17 lead into halftime, but Denver had the momentum after Thomas scored his second touchdown with 12 seconds left to cap an 80-yard drive that took only 1:42.

But the Dolphins regained control of the game after long-snapper John Denney recovered a fumble on a punt return, setting up Landry's first touchdown, which gave Miami a 28-17 lead.

The Dolphins opened the game with a flawless drive, marching 80 yards on seven plays. With the exception of Thomas' touchdown run, all plays gained at least 5 yards.

All but two of the plays on the opening drive were runs, including a 22-yard gain by Lamar Miller that took the ball to the Denver 37-yard line.

After Denver kicked a field goal to make it 7-3, each team scored two touchdowns in the second quarter.

Tannehill made it 14-3 on the fifth play of the second quarter with a 1-yard run, his first rushing touchdown of the season.

Denver came back with a touchdown drive that included three third-down conversion, including Manning's 5-yard touchdown pass to Thomas.

The Dolphins made it 21-10 with an interesting drive that saw them survive three fumbles. Brandon Gibson fumbled out of bounds twice after catching passes from Tannehill, but that wasn't the most significant.

After Tannehill made a terrific throw to Rishard Matthews with DeMarcus Ware bearing down on him, Matthews was stripped of the ball, but Miller hustled downfield to fall on the fumble at the Denver 10-yard line.

On the very next play, Tannehill threw a perfect pass low and outside for a 10-yard touchdown to Wallace.

Denver would respond with touchdowns on four of its last five possessions, the only exception coming when Brandon McManus clanked a short field goal attempt off the right upright early in the third quarter.

Other than that, the Dolphins defense had no answer for Manning and the Broncos.

WEEK 13 VS. NEW YORK JETS

GAME 12: MIAMI 16, NEW YORK JETS 13

MONDAY, DEC. 1 • 8:30 P.M. ET • METLIFE STADIUM • EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins may not have scored many style points Monday night against the struggling New York Jets, but they accomplished the goal of leaving MetLife Stadium with an important victory.

By beating the Jets, 16-13, on Caleb Sturgis' 26-yard field goal with 1:57 left, the Dolphins improved to 7-5 on the season and tied a group of five other teams with that record vying for one of two AFC wild-card spots.

San Diego leads the wild-card race with an 8-4 record, but the Dolphins right now would get the sixth AFC playoff spot ahead of the other 7-5 teams — Buffalo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Kansas City.

The game-winning score came at the end of a 57-yard drive that featured two big completions from quarterback Ryan Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims, starting his second consecutive game in place of injured starter Charles Clay.

The Dolphins clinched the victory when safety Reshad Jones intercepted a Geno Smith pass intended for tight end Jeff Cumberland after it bounced off the back of linebacker Jelani Jenkinswith 34 seconds left.

According to ESPN, this marked the Dolphins' second victory on the road when trailing in the fourth quarter in the past 50 such occurrences. The other came last December against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Dolphins won despite being outgained 326-291 and allowing 277 rushing yards. More importantly, they won a close game for the first time this season after suffering close losses against Green Bay, Detroit and Denver.

Against a Jets team that came in with a 2-9 record and switched back to Smith at quarterback, the Dolphins trailed most of the game before tying the score at 13-13 when Lamar Miller scored on a 4-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

The Dolphins took advantage of a short field after a punt and a Jets penalty gave them a first down at the New York 39-yard line. The score came five plays after Tannehill hit Jarvis Landry for a 25-yard completion.

The defense came up with some big plays in the second half, the biggest a Cameron Wake sack that knocked the Jets out of field goal range.

The sack kept the Jets from getting any points after Darrin Walls picked off a Tannehill pass that bounced up after Lamar tried to make a low catch. Walls returned the interception to the Dolphins 30-yard line.

The Dolphins could have had another huge play after a botched handoff between Smith and Chris Ivory, but Ivory was able to recover the fumble at the Jets 5-yard line.

The game-winning drive came after Jets kicker Nick Folk missed a 45-yard field goal attempt, his second miss on the night.

The Dolphins trailed 10-3 at halftime, but the truth is they were fortunate that the margin wasn't larger.

While each team missed a field goal attempt, the Jets also dropped two potential interceptions that hit defenders right in the hands and Smith also overthrew Percy Harvin after he got open behind the Dolphins secondary.

As it was, the Dolphins allowed more than 200 yards rushing in the first half, including a 47-yard gain by Chris Johnson and a 20-yard touchdown by wide receiver Greg Salas on an end-around.

The 47-yard run tied for longest against the Dolphins this season, matching the run by Buffalo's C.J. Spiller in Week 2.

Johnson's long run was the key play in an 85-yard touchdown drive and was followed immediately by the touchdown run by Salas, who suffered a hamstring injury on the play.

The Dolphins missed a chance to cut into the Jets' lead on their next possession when Sturgis was wide left on a 43-yard field goal attempt.

The Jets increased the lead to 10-0 after a 10-play drive that featured nothing but running plays and ended with Folk's 40-yard field goal.

Folk later missed a 48-yard attempt on the play after Smith missed Harvin, and the Dolphins took advantage by driving into position for a 43-yard field goal by Sturgis on the last play of the half. The big play on the 38-yard drive was a 21-yard completion from Tannehill to Sims.

In addition to being without Clay, the offense also had to do without wide receiver Brian Hartlineafter he sustained a knee injury in the first half.

WEEK 14 VS. BALTIMORE

GAME 13: BALTIMORE 28, MIAMI 13

SUNDAY, DEC. 7 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins got the start they wanted Sunday, but it pretty much was all downhill from there against the Baltimore Ravens.

After jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter, the Dolphins were outscored 28-3 the rest of the way and dropped a 28-13 decision in a key AFC matchup at Sun Life Stadium.

The Dolphins are 7-6 with their next game scheduled for next Sunday against the New England Patriots at Gillette Stadium.

Ryan Tannehill hit Brian Hartline with a 4-yard touchdown with 1:41 left to give the Dolphins their 10-0 point lead, but they could manage only a Caleb Sturgis field goal the rest of the game.

Tannehill again completed a high percentage of his passes (69.7), but he also was sacked six times.

Baltimore quarterback Joe Flacco, meanwhile, threw for two touchdowns and ran for another.

The Ravens took the lead for good in the third quarter when Flacco hit a 13-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kamar Aiken.

The Ravens extended their lead to 21-13 midway through the fourth quarter after a Flacco fumble caused by Cameron Wake and recovered by Earl Mitchell was reversed after it was reviewed.

Trailing by eight, the Dolphins offense went three-and-out and Baltimore put the game away with an 81-yard drive that featured runs of 44 yards by Justin Forsett and 23 yards by Bernard Pierce.

Before the Ravens pulled away, the Dolphins had opportunities in the second half, but they failed to take full advantage because of untimely mistakes and some damaging sacks.

A drive late in the third quarter that reached Baltimore territory ended when Tannehill was sacked on third down.

The Dolphins then had to settle for a field goal after getting a first-and-goal from the 4-yard line early in the fourth quarter after guard Shelley Smith was penalized for a false start on second down and Tannehill was sacked again on third down.

The Dolphins defense opened the game by forcing a three-and-out by stuffing Lorenzo Taliaferro for no gain on third-and-1 and then put together a 36-yard drive that netted a 46-yard field goal by Sturgis.

The end of the drive was disappointing, though, because the Dolphins were stopped for no gain on second-and-1 and third-and-1 from the Baltimore 28-yard line.

After the defense forced another three-and-out, the Dolphins marched 66 yards for a touchdown that gave them a 10-0 lead. The score came when Tannehill fired a bullet to Hartline through a couple of Ravens defenders on third-and-goal.

The defense stopped Baltimore's first scoring threat in the second quarter when cornerback R.J. Stanford, starting because of the injuries to Cortland Finnegan and Jamar Taylor, intercepted Flacco in the end zone when pressure from Reshad Jones on a blitz hurried the throw.

What overall was a good first half ended on a bad note when Baltimore drove 97 yards in the final 3:08 to cut the Dolphins lead to 10-7.

The drive, which featured five plays of 10 or longer, ended when Flacco hit Steve Smith with a 1-yard touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone with two seconds left in the half.

WEEK 15 VS. NEW ENGLAND

GAME 14: NEW ENGLAND 41, MIAMI 13

SUNDAY, DEC. 14 • 1 P.M. ET • GILLETTE STADIUM • FOXBOROUGH, MASS.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins had tremendous success in the third quarter in their first 13 games, but after trailing 14-13 at halftime, the Dolphins were outscored 24-0 in the third quarter in what became a 41-13 loss against the New England Patriots.

While New England clinched another AFC East title with the victory, the Dolphins saw their record drop to 7-7.

The Dolphins had the momentum going into halftime after scoring 10 points in the last 4:26 of the second quarter, including a 32-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace, to cut into their 14-3 deficit.

But the second half was a reversal of the season opener at Sun Life Stadium when the Dolphins outscored New England 23-0 on their way to a 33-20 victory.

The Dolphins were shut out in the second half for the first time all season, and the 24 points allowed in the third quarter represented their worst defensive scoring quarter since the 2012 opener against the Houston Texans.

The Dolphins shut out Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski in the first half, but had no answers for him in the third quarter. Gronkowski caught a 34-yard pass on the first snap of the quarter on a drive that ended with a touchdown; he caught a 27-yard touchdown on the first play after safety Patrick Chung intercepted a deflected pass; and he had a 35-yard reception on New England's third touchdown drive of the third quarter.

The Dolphins offense, meanwhile, couldn't put any points on the board in the second half. Miami did reach New England territory twice in the fourth quarter, including getting a first-and-goal, but turned the ball over on downs both times.

Even with the late 10-point burst in the second quarter, the halftime score was disappointing because of the way the Dolphins outplayed New England in the first two quarters.

The evidence comes in the Dolphins' big edge in total yards, 271-102.

But all it took was two plays to make the difference. The first came at the end of the Dolphins' opening drive when Jamie Collins blocked a 41-yard field goal attempt by Caleb Sturgis and Kyle Arrington returned the block 62 yards for a touchdown and an early 7-0 New England lead.

The second big play came on the Dolphins' first drive of the second quarter when safety Duron Harmon picked off a Tannehill pass and returned it 60 yards to the Dolphins 8-yard line, setting up Shane Vereen's 3-yard touchdown run to make it 14-3.

The Dolphins opened the game by going for — and connecting on — a deep ball, with Tannehill hitting Wallace for 50 yards to the New England 30-yard line.

But the drive stalled, leading to the blocked field goal attempt. The Dolphins had another scoring threat in the first quarter, but had to settle for Sturgis' 24-yard field goal after having a first-and-goal at the 10-yard line.

Sturgis added a 53-yard field goal in the second quarter on a drive where the biggest play was a 25-yard pass interference penalty against cornerback Brandon Browner on a pass intended for Jarvis Landry.

Landry ended up with 99 receiving yards on the day, while Wallace finished with 104 for the first 100-yard receving game for a Dolphins player this season.

Wallace's touchdown with five seconds left in the second quarter came after the initial ruling of an incomplete pass was overturned after being reviewed. The replay showed Wallace coming down in bounds in the end zone after he cradled the ball in with only his left hand.

Unfortunately for the Dolphins, that would be their last highlight of the day.

WEEK 16 VS. MINNESOTA

GAME 15: MIAMI 37, MINNESOTA 35

SUNDAY, DEC. 21 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins refused to give up Sunday and in the end were rewarded in one of the wildest games at Sun Life Stadium in a long time.

Terrence Fede blocked a punt through the end zone for a safety with 41 seconds left to give the Dolphins a 37-35 victory in a game that had a little bit of everything.

The safety, coming on the Dolphins' team-record third blocked punt of the season, came shortly after Ryan Tannehill threw a 3-yard touchdown pass to Damien Williams to tie the score 35-35.

It was Tannehill's fourth touchdown pass of the game, the most by a Dolphins quarterback since Dan Marino did it in 1998.

Williams' score came after Minnesota had scored two touchdowns in six seconds to turn a 28-20 Dolphins lead into a 35-28 deficit.

The game featured several outstanding individual offensive performances for the Dolphins, incliuding Tannehill passing for 396 yards. In addition, Mike Wallace had two touchdown passes to give him 10 on the season; Charles Clay had six catches for a career-high 114 yards; and Jarvis Landry had six catches to set a Dolphins rookie record for receptions in a season with his eight catches.

Landry now has 79 receptions on the season, surpassing the mark of 75 set by running back Terry Kirby in 1993.

The game-winning safety followed a three-and-out series by Minnesota that featured Cameron Wake getting a sack, his second of the game, on third down.

Matt Asiata gave Minnesota the 35-28 lead one play after Minnesota recovered a Jarvis Landry fumble on the kickoff that followed another touchdown and two-point conversion that had tied the game 28-28.

On the two-point conversion, Dolphins defensive end Olivier Vernon was flagged for roughing to put the ensuing kickoff at midfield. Landry fielded the kick at the goal line but lost it when he lost his balance and stumbled.

The Dolphins took the lead for the first time at 21-17 on the first play of the fourth quarter when Miller went in practically untouched on a 1-yard run on third-and-goal.

It started a crazy fourth quarter where the Dolphins outscored Minnesota 23-18.

The Dolphins (8-7) began their second-half comeback after holding Minnesota to a three-and-out. The offense then drove 80 yards on six plays, the big one a 41-yard completion from Tannehill to Clay.

On second-and-goal from the 16, Wallace added another spectacular touchdown to his collection this season when he caught a deflected pass near the sideline at the 2, then spun around and dove into the end zone while reaching out with the ball in his right hand.

The touchdown was upheld after review and made the score 17-14.

Wallace's second touchdown came on a 7-yard pass on third-and-goal and gave the Dolphins a 28-20 lead after Blair Walsh had cut into their 21-17 lead with a 33-yard field goal.

The first half overall was pretty forgettable for the Dolphins, although it did feature an impressive 92-yard drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass from Tannehill to tight end Dion Sims.

The big play of the drive was a 33-yard completion to Clay from the Dolphins 22 to the Vikings 45.

The Dolphins moved into Minnesota territory on their first two offensive possessions, but mistakes at key times kept them from putting any points on the board.

The second drive ended at the Minnesota 44-yard line when Tannehill's third-down pass fell incomplete after there seemed to be some confusion on the route.

On third-and-4 from the Minnesota 32 on the first drive of the game, there seemed to be some confusion after Tannehill took a shotgun snap and the result was a sack that left the Dolphins to try to a 56-yard field goal attempt, which fell short.

Starting at its own 46 following the missed field goal, Minnesota scored after a 54-yard drive that ended with five consecutive runs by Asiata, including a 1-yard touchdown on third-and-goal.

Minnesota increased its lead to 14-0 early in the second quarter, three plays after safety Harrison Smith intercepted Tannehill after smothering a screen pass attempt while coming on a blitz.

The touchdown came on a 21-yard pass from Bridgewater to veteran wide receiver Greg Jennings.

The 17-7 halftime deficit actually could have been bigger had the Dolphins not stopped two Minnesota plays from the 1-yard line in the final seconds of the first half, forcing Minnesota to settle for a short field goal.

That set the stage for what would become a wild second half.

WEEK 17 VS. NEW YORK JETS

GAME 16: NEW YORK 37, MIAMI 24

SUNDAY, DEC. 28 • 1 P.M. ET • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

GAME SUMMARY

The Dolphins came up short in their attempt to finish the season with a winning record, but there still were plenty of memorable moments in the regular season finale at Sun Life Stadium.

Running back Lamar Miller highlighted a game of big plays in the 37-24 loss against the New York Jets on Sunday with an electrifying 97-yard touchdown run that set a franchise record and put him over 1,000 yards for the season.

With the loss, the Dolphins ended the season with an 8-8 record and in third place in the AFC East, and they also missed out on a chance to sweep the Jets for the first time since 2009.

Miller's run, which came one play after the Dolphins stopped the Jets on fourth-and-1, was the third-longest in NFL history behind a 99-yard run by Dallas' Tony Dorsett in 1982 and a 98-yard run by Green Bay's Ahmad Green in 2003.

Miller easily topped the previous Dolphins record of 77 yards, first set by Leroy Harris in 1977 and matched by Keith Byars on Thanksgiving Day 1993.

The 97-yard run helped Miller finish with a career-high 178 yards, the sixth-highest total in Dolphins history.

Quarterback Ryan Tannehill also reached 4,000 passing yards on the season and broke Dan Marino's single-season record for completions when he hit rookie Jarvis Landry for an 11-yard gain late in the third quarter.

Tannehill also hooked up with Landry when he passed 4,000 yards, a 17-yard completion on the Dolphins' first offensive play of the fourth quarter.

It marks the first time in franchise history the Dolphins have a 4,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season.

The Jets won with 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including a field goal with 31 seconds left.

The biggest play, though, was a 38-yard completion from Ryan Quigley to Zach Sudfeld off a fake punt that set up a 23-yard touchdown pass from Geno Smith to tight end Jeff Cumberland.

Smith, the former Miramar High School star, passed for a career-high 358 yards and three touchdowns for the Jets.

The first half Sunday ended with the Dolphins leading 17-14 after Tannehill threw a 23-yard touchdown pass to tight end Charles Clay with 43 seconds left in the second quarter, but things really got wild in the second half.

It began with an 87-yard kickoff return by the Jets' Chris Owusu, and also included Miller's 97-yard run, a 74-yard Jets touchdown pass from Smith to Eric Decker, a 33-yard completion from Tannehill to Brian Hartline, a 50-yard reception by Decker and a 33-yard completion from Smith to Jeremy Kerley.

Decker finished the game with 221 receiving yards, the highest regular season total ever by a Dolphins opponent.

Owusu, who was promoted from the Jets practice squad earlier this month, gave New York a 7-3 lead in the first quarter by starting a drive with a 36-yard completion and ending it with a 23-yard touchdown run on an end-around.

The Dolphins regained the lead early in the second quarter after Jason Trusnik recovered a Smith fumble at the Jets 21-yard line. Five plays after the turnover, Daniel Thomas scored on a 1-yard run. A 40-yard completion from Smith to Decker set up an 8-yard touchdown catch by running back Chris Ivory that gave the Jets a 17-14 lead.

Clay's touchdown at the end of the first half capped a 93-yard touchdown that featured six completions by Tannehill, including a 16-yard hook-up with Hartline on third-and-15 from midfield.
